Fairytales

She dreams of a fairytale prince, one who will sweep her away in a fluttering gold dress, like a fairy tale princess.

Songs of identity

The moment I found love again, the moment I found myself, I found a world. The moment I found myself, I found a world. The moment I found myself, I found a world. The moment I found myself, I found a world.

Fairytale Love

The dreams of a fairytale, her wishes are answered, the flights of fancy are over that through the time tunnel in a fleeting golden hour, and she will never stop, she takes, her life, princess dreams.
